

A human rights assessment enables a humane and reasoned approach to statutory restrictions to services. The purpose is to:

- ❖ Meet statutory duties
- ❖ Seek a solution to the family or individual's destitution in the UK.
- ❖ Facilitate an open conversation with the family/individual to consider all their available options
- ❖ Seek alternatives to enforced removal by Home Office
- ❖ Provide transparency in the decision making process, seeking legal advice where necessary