

CALL FOR PAPERS

Peter N Davies Seminar

Peter N Davies
1927-2020

Peter Davies was one of Britain's foremost scholars of the international shipping industry and was instrumental in strengthening the international standing of maritime history. Peter was a founding member of CPMH and, as such, the Centre is pleased to host this annual seminar series in honour of his contribution to maritime history and his support for emerging scholars in the discipline.

CPMH welcomes applications from post-graduate and early career researchers to deliver the Peter N Davies Seminar. For further information and application form, please scan the QR code or visit:

<https://www.ljmu.ac.uk/research/centres-and-institutes/centre-for-port-and-maritime-history/events>

Completed applications must be returned by advertised deadline on the website and the seminar will be held on the first Wednesday in November.

